Students have the power and potential to shape a better world.
what do we do?

Student Hubs supports student-led social action across a network of universities in the UK. We connect students with local causes to create a positive impact. Our programmes are based on a double-benefit model where both students and communities benefit.

"I really enjoyed working and coming up with a solution for a charity that could help the local community. It was nice to meet new people and make us feel more connected with the community in ways we wouldn’t have otherwise.”

"The support and friendship the girls have given to the Residents at General Johnson Court has been a pleasure to observe. I have been the Manager there for many years so I know the Residents well. The Residents have loved the companionship with the girls."

“We have been able to offer your programme to some of our most vulnerable pupils. This has given them the chance to participate in enjoyable activities which has enabled them to work with your volunteers on a 1:1 basis and enhance their self-esteem and confidence. Both the school and pupils are extremely grateful and appreciate of the experiences you have been able to offer."

Jack joined Southampton Hub in 2018 to volunteer for Biocycle, a project that collects food waste from student houses so that it can be recycled instead of going to landfill.

Jack cycled 210km to Cardiff to fundraise because "Southampton Hub has so many fantastic projects, from sustainability projects to projects empowering young women and supporting kids from disadvantaged backgrounds. If there's a social issue you care about, Southampton Hub or another Hub have probably got a project related to it! There are so many fantastic causes that donations can go towards"
I have worked at Southampton Hub since August 2018, worked locally with young people since 2015 and have grown up in the city. I had always wanted to run a half marathon and I am very passionate about providing opportunities for young people to access further education and cultural experiences, why not raise money for it? I spend a lot of time encouraging students to fundraise, it felt so good to be able to go out there and challenge myself.

I loved running my first half marathon so much that I booked another one when I got back. I felt so proud to have accomplished a personal challenge as well as raising money for a very worthy cause.
